

GLEND A FORD

Glenda was raised in Union County, Arkansas and graduated from Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, Arkansas. She also attended the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, where she earned a Master's of Library and Information Science Degree.

After spending 40 years out of the state of Arkansas, Glenda was thrilled to return to her home state in 2016. Glenda spent 30 years in Louisiana public education as a school librarian.

When not at the library, Glenda loves to participate in choirs and social events at Balboa Baptist Church. Glenda is married to Dennis and they have two sons, Tommy and Jonathan (Allison), and two English Springer Spaniels - Darby and Tessa.

Glenda enjoys reading, but most of all enjoys meeting and getting to know the patrons of the Coronado Center Library.
